

Day, by day, the dependency increase of company's dependence on information technology, and is common that, their critical applications are contextualized in complex and heterogeneous environments. Slowness, non accessibility or interruption of these applications causes loss of sales, customers and productivity.

Without an appropriated management policy, the System's manager will be focused in "erase fire" absorbing the business investment on solving problems, instead of focus in creating solutions that bring competitive differential.

SOLUTION

The Monitora-IT is a governance software to companies whose business depend on the continuity and accuracy of their software and hardware performance.

Through reports, charts and alerts, the IT area indicators are verified, presenting performance and business-wide behavior. These information enable audit the service's level agreement (SLA) found in the company helping the scaling and maximizing the profitability of information technology operations, as recommended ITIL® frameworks and COBIT®.

A robust solution, scalable and easily customizable to manage multi-platform environments, the Monitora-IT, provides monitoring, notifications, event management, reports, historical and trends in a centralized console, enabling proactive management of health and performance of information technology's environment.

MAIN BENEFITS AND RESOURCES

- Simplifies the IT management through a proactive method
- Optimizes the IT infrastructure throughout the life cycle of applications in the company
- Automates respective tasks, complex and passive of error
- Makes easy the search of events and helps you prioritize actions
- Centers the infrastructure of IT management through an integrated environment
- Increases productivity of the IT department
- Reduces costs with support
- Support with qualified and certified professionals that ensure high level services (supplementary optional service)

Differential

With a flexible and modular architecture, the Monitora-IT, differs by its usability, ease of installation and configuration. Highlighting itself by the excellent cost-benefit ratio, and you can deploy it to any environment, integrate with other management software and customize it to police any hardware, software or business processes.

Award

The IBM®, Oi®, Itautec®, Serasa®, Perto®, Diebold® Procomp® and CPM Braxis® rewarded the Monitora-IT as the best innovate product award of CIAB/Febraban 2007, considered the largest Latin America's technological event for the financial sector.

See what the Monitora-IT can do for your company accessing <http://www.monitora-it.com.br>